

Commissioner Sandy Murman participated with #TeamTampaBay in Dribble to Work Day as a member of the Women’s Final Four Advisory Committee. Check out video here. She said, “We’re proud to have them back in Hillsborough County for their 3rd championship journey! Get out and support #WFinalFour & #WFFTampaBay! The fun happens April 5-7 right here in Tampa!”

Women’s Final Four brings weekend of events for Tampa Bay residents

If the games weren’t exciting enough, the Women’s Final Four is bringing a weekend jam-packed with events around Tampa Bay for residents and visitors of all ages. Sports fans, college students, young professionals, families, friends: there is something for everyone. Tip off your weekend with a trip to Tourney Town presented by Capital One. Tourney Town is a FREE festival within a festival jam packed with special appearances, autograph signings, interactive games, giveaways, basketball contests, youth clinics and more.

Faces of the Women’s Final Four in Tampa Bay

For Tiffany Greene, the 2019 NCAA Women’s Final Four could be viewed as the collision of her two worlds. The Tampa native covers a variety of college sports for ESPN including football, softball, volleyball and – you guessed it – basketball! This past year, she made history when she became the first African-American woman to call play-by-play for college football on a major network.

Local women are volunteering for Women’s Final Four events

Meet Janice Davis. Janice is a past volunteer who never hesitates to sign up when Tampa Bay plays host to large scale sporting events. She often recruits others to get involved and touts the excitement, access and fun that comes from volunteering. But perhaps the one thing you’ll notice as you read about Janice is the enormous amount of pride she takes in making sure that Tampa Bay shines whenever it welcomes visiting fans and local guests.

Hillsborough Commissioners to proclaim Women’s Final Four Tampa Bay Days

Hillsborough County Commissioners will proclaim 2019 NCAA Women’s Final Four Tampa Bay Days at their regularly scheduled Board of County Commissioners meeting on Wednesday, April 3, at 9:00 a.m. on the 2nd Floor of County Center, 601 E. Kennedy Blvd., Tampa, FL 33602. This is the third time Tampa Bay has hosted this event, which culminates with the NCAA Women’s Basketball Championship Game on Sunday, April 7, at Amalie Arena.

UPCOMING EVENTS FOR NCAA WOMEN’S FINAL FOUR

Friday, April 5, 10:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m. – Women’s Final Four Tourney Town at Tampa Convention Center

Sunday, April 7, 10:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. – Women’s Final Four Tourney Town at Tampa Convention Center

Sunday, April 7, 6:00 p.m. – National Championship Game at Amalie Arena

STAY CONNECTED

WHAT’S ON THE WFF SCHEDULE?

Click on this to see a Women’s Final Four schedule

